President's Message - Rick Lutt

Hello friends and fellow hunters,

For many of you this time of year means things are winding down and the pace is a little slower. Most all of us in the industry probably struggled with the wet early season, late harvest and now the harsh winter. Hopefully not many had to endure the hardships like the operators in the Gregory area faced after a brutal hail storm. I'm sure everyone has seen some negative effects from the economy but the members of this organization always seem to find ways to weather the storms and come out poised to strive further ahead. If you are fortunate to catch a little down time take a deep breath, pat yourself on the back you have survived another season. Looking ahead there doesn't appear to be any major issues facing our organization but as you all know that can change at any time. I know some of the events of the last year have caused some mixed feelings among the members. Speaking for myself and the facts that we had at the time, I feel our board acted in the best interest of the association. It is unfortunate that some want to judge the actions of the board on incorrect information. I will assure you that board even with it many varied opinions have and will be working on our industries best interest now and in the future. If any of you have concerns or an issue that needs addressed please bring it to my attention or one of the fellow board members. We do listen and do need your input to make this an effective organization. In October we at Southfork were fortunate enough to again host David Fererty's IED of Hunting (can be seen on YouTube) for some wounded U.S. soldiers. I also just returned from a visit through the Walter Reed medical facility. These two events really makes you appreciate the sacrifices these young men (and all them before) have made so that we can enjoy all the opportunities we have. (Continued on Page 4)
